

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPERS

STAY IN TOUCH, KEEP AHEAD

Purpose

Kaboodle Leadership Developers Academy is committed to furthering the quality of leadership in all aspects of society through sharing the latest thinking and innovative practices in leadership and leadership development. It acknowledges that the nature of leadership is constantly evolving and changing contexts at local and global levels stimulate the emergence of new approaches to the nature of leading as well as the development of leaders.

It is a Community of Practice for all involved in developing leaders within organisations or through consultancy, coaching and training companies that work across organisations.

It provides an opportunity to keep up to date with new and active research across a wide range of disciplines as well as experimental work being carried out amongst practitioners. In this way it brings practitioners and academics together.
